EXEMPTION POLICY (PARENT-STUDENT HANDBOOK, P. 13)

- A student may exempt the Second Semester exam for any class in which he/she has achieved a cumulative yearly average of 90 or above. A student taking a one-semester course (i.e. health, SAT Prep, etc.) may not exempt the exam.
- Students who have missed more than seven class periods during Second Semester or have missed more than 14 class periods for the entire year (excluding school-related events) will not be allowed to exempt the exam for the class in question. No exceptions and no appeals.

Reminder: All accounts, including tuition, fees, lunchroom, athletic (including equipment), library, pictures, etc. must be settled before students may take semester exams. Parents have been told to have accounts settled by Friday, May 10.

After that time, teachers will receive a list of students who have unsettled accounts.
