

BLISS McMICHAEL

selected to the

2010 UGA HOMECOMING COURT

Each year, the Homecoming Committee of the University Union seeks to find two individuals, a male and female, who exemplify the qualities that the University of Georgia seeks to instill in all the individuals who pass through its famous Arch. After a series of interview and application reviews, the Homecoming Committee of the University Union Student Programming Board has announced the 10 members, five males and five females, of the 2010 University of Georgia Homecoming Court. One of the representatives selected is Dublin native, Bliss McMichael, a senior majoring in public relations and sponsored by the Student Government Association. Bliss is the daughter of Allen and Lisa McMichael and is a 2007 graduate of Trinity Christian School.

While at the university, Bliss, a UGA Presidential Scholar, has been very involved on campus. She is a member of the Dean William Tate Honor Society, Order of Omega, the National Society of Collegiate Scholars, Golden Key International Honour Society, and Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. Last spring, she acted as the Director of Public Relations for the winning ticket in the 2010-2011 Student Government Association elections and now serves as the Student Government Association Freshman Forum Director. Bliss was a 2009 UGA Orientation leader and has been involved in Relay for Life, ugaMIRACLE, Sophomore Leaders' Circle, Student Alumni Association, and the Public Relations Student Society of America. Bliss is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority where she has served as Vice President of Administration/Education, Executive Assistant, New Member Committee, Alumni Relations Committee, Junior Panhellenic Delegate, Pledge Class Caucus Leader, and is a Pearl Scholar.

UGA students can vote for their candidates of choice between 8 a.m. on Monday, October 11 and noon on Friday, October 15 on OASIS. The Homecoming king and queen will be crowned at halftime of the UGA vs. Vanderbilt game on Saturday, October 16.
